ARCHITECTS ACT
(CHAPTER 12, SECTION 36)
ARCHITECTS RULES

[30th August 1991]

Citation.

1. These Rules may be cited as the Architects Rules.

PART I

REGISTRATION

Form of application.

2. An application for registration as an architect under the Act shall be in the Form 1 set out in the First Schedule.

Qualifications and training.

3. —(1) An application for registration under the Act made by a person who holds any qualification referred to in section 15 (1) (a) or (b) of the Act shall be accompanied by a copy of the qualification by which he claims to be entitled to such registration.

- (2) An application for registration under the Act made by a person referred to in section 15 (1) (c) of the Act shall be accompanied by such evidence of training in architecture as the Board may require.

Practical experience.

4. —(1) The practical experience that a person is required to have under section 15 (2) (a) or (b) of the Act in order to be entitled to registration under the Act shall be such practical experience in architectural work undertaken by an architect engaged in the practice of architecture as may be acceptable to the Board, which shall include practical experience obtained in Singapore for a continuous period of at least 12 months under the supervision of a registered architect in the employ of the Government or a registered architect who has in force a practising certificate.

(2) No person shall be eligible to sit for the examination referred to in section 15 (2) (a) of the Act unless he has the practical experience prescribed in paragraph (1).

Evidence of practical experience.

5. —(1) Every person applying for registration under the Act shall submit with his application proof in writing of his practical experience, which shall include details of the duration and a description of the practical experience in such form as the Board may require.

(2) The Board may, with a view to determining the nature of an applicant's practical experience, conduct an interview with the applicant.

Further evidence.

6. The Board may require an applicant to furnish such other evidence or particulars as the Board considers necessary to determine whether the applicant is entitled to registration under the Act.

Fee for registration.

7. Every application for registration under the Act shall be accompanied by a fee of $150 which shall be in the form of a bank draft or cheque made in favour of the Board and such fee shall not be refundable.

Decision of Board.

8. —(1) When any person applies for registration under the Act, the Registrar shall as soon as practicable refer the application to the Board.

(2) Notification of every decision of the Board with respect to any application for registration under the Act shall be given to the applicant by letter signed by the Registrar addressed to the applicant at the address stated by him in the application.

Form of certificate of registration.

9. —(1) A registered architect shall, on payment of a fee of $150, be issued a certificate of registration duly signed by the Registrar.

(2) The certificate of registration shall be in the Form 2 set out in the First Schedule.

Removal of name from register of architects.

10. An application by a registered architect to have his name removed from the register of architects shall be in the Form 3 set out in the First Schedule.

PART IIPRACTISING CERTIFICATES*Definitions of this Part

10A. —(1) In this Part —

"continuing professional development point" means a continuing professional development point which a registered architect obtains by successfully completing any continuing professional development program;

"continuing professional development program" means any activity, course or programme in the list of activities, courses or programmes published by the Board under rule 13B;

"qualifying period" , in relation to a registered architect, means the period of 12 months immediately preceding the date on which the practising certificate in respect of which he has made an application is to commence;

"requisite continuing professional development points" , in relation to a registered architect, means the number of continuing professional development points he is required to obtain under rule 13A (2), (3) or (4), as the case may be.

(2) In this Part, a registered architect obtains a specified number of continuing professional development points if he successfully completes one or more of the activities, courses or programmes in the list published under rule 13B, the total number of continuing professional development points of which equals or exceeds that specified number.

Application

10B. Rules 13A to 13D shall apply only to a registered architect who applies on or after 1st January 2004 for a practising certificate authorising him to engage in the practice of architecture after 31st December 2004.

Form of application.

11. An application for a practising certificate shall be in the Form 4 set out in the First Schedule and shall be signed by the applicant.

Fee for application.

12. For the purposes of section 18 (3) (c) of the Act, a fee of $200 which shall be in the form of a bank draft or cheque made in favour of the Board shall accompany and be payable in respect of an application for a practising certificate, and such fee shall not be refundable.

Additional fee for late application.

13. —(1) Where an application for a practising certificate authorising the holder thereof to engage in the practice of architecture during any year or part thereof is made on or after 1st January of that year or after 1st December of the previous year, a fee of $50 in addition to the fee prescribed in rule 12 shall accompany and be payable in respect of that application, and such additional fee shall not be refundable.

(2) Paragraph (1) shall not apply to any first application for a practising certificate after registration under the Act or the repealed Act.

Requirements as to continuing professional education

13A. —(1) For the purposes of section 18 (4) (f) of the Act, the Board may refuse to issue a practising certificate to a registered architect if he fails to satisfy the Board that he has obtained or will obtain the requisite continuing professional development points during the qualifying period.

- (2) Where a registered architect is below the age of 60 years on the date on which the practising certificate in respect of which he has made an application is to commence, the requisite continuing professional development points he is required to obtain before a practising certificate may be issued to him is 20 continuing professional development points.
- (3) Where a registered architect is of or above the age of 60 years but below the age of 70 years on the date on which the practising certificate in respect of which he has made an application is to commence, the requisite continuing professional development points he is required to obtain before a practising certificate may be issued to him is 15 continuing professional development points.
- (4) Where a registered architect is of or above the age of 70 years on the date on which the practising certificate in respect of which he has made an application is to commence, the requisite continuing professional development points he is required to obtain before a practising certificate may be issued to him is 10 continuing professional development points.
- (5) The Board may issue a practising certificate to a registered architect notwithstanding that he has failed to obtain the requisite continuing professional development points applicable to him during the qualifying period if the registered architect gives an undertaking that he will make up for the shortfall in the requisite continuing professional development points during the period of 12 months immediately following the last day of the qualifying period.
- (6) If a practising certificate has been issued to a registered architect by virtue of an undertaking given under paragraph (5), any continuing professional development points obtained by the registered architect to make up for the shortfall in the requisite continuing professional development points referred to in that paragraph shall be disregarded for the purpose of a subsequent application for a practising certificate.
- (7) Notwithstanding paragraphs (2), (3) and (4), the Board may, in such special circumstances as it may determine, issue a practising certificate to a registered architect even though he has failed to satisfy the Board that he has obtained the requisite continuing professional development points applicable to him during the qualifying period.

List of activities, etc., with professional development points

13B. The Board shall publish on its Internet website a list of activities, courses and programmes for the purposes of this Part and the number of continuing professional development points which a registered architect obtains by successfully completing each of the activities, courses and programmes.

Issue of guidelines and directives

13C. For the purposes of rules 13A and 13B, the Board may issue such guidelines and directives, not inconsistent with the provisions of these Rules, as the Board considers necessary.

Transitional provision

13D. Where —

(a) a registered architect applies on or after 1st January 2004 for a practising certificate authorising him to engage in the practice of architecture in the year 2005; and

(b) he had, at any time during the period of 12 months immediately preceding 1st January 2004, successfully completed any activity, course or programme —

- (i) published on the Internet website of the Board before 1st January 2004; and
- (ii) identified therein as an activity, course or programme for which a registered architect will obtain a specified number of continuing professional development points (referred to in this rule as the earlier points) if he successfully completes it, then the earlier points shall be treated as continuing professional development points obtained by the registered architect during the qualifying period for that application.

Evidence.

14. The Board may require a statutory declaration or such other evidence as the Board may consider necessary to support the facts, circumstances or particulars contained in any application for a practising certificate.

Form of practising certificate.

15. A practising certificate shall be in the Form 5 set out in the First Schedule.

PART III

LICENCES

Form of application.

16. An application for a licence to supply architectural services in Singapore shall be in the Form 6 set out in the First Schedule, and shall be made not less than one month before the expiration of any previous licence issued to the applicant.

Fee.

17. Every application for a licence shall be accompanied by a fee of $500 which shall be in the form of a bank draft or cheque made in favour of the Board, and such fee shall not be refundable.

Evidence.

18. —(1) An application by a corporation for a licence shall be accompanied by —

- (a) a certified true copy each of the memorandum and articles of association of the corporation;
- (b) a list of the members and directors of the corporation containing particulars as to whether they are registered architects, allied professionals or otherwise, and such other particulars as the Board may require;
- (c) a certified true copy of any policy insuring the corporation against professional liability in accordance with the Act and the rules made thereunder for such period as the corporation is licensed to supply architectural services;
- (d) a certified true copy of the certificate of incorporation issued in respect of the corporation under section 19 of the Companies Act; and
- (e) a certified true copy of the resolution passed by the board of directors of the corporation under section 20 (1) (d) (ii) or (2) (c) (iii) of the Act.

Cap. 50.

(2) An application for a licence by a partnership not comprising wholly of registered architects shall be accompanied by —

(a) a copy of the agreement establishing the partnership; and

(b) a list of the partners of the partnership containing particulars as to whether they are registered architects, allied professionals or otherwise, and such other particulars as the Board may require.

(3) The Board may require an applicant for a licence to furnish a statutory declaration to support any facts or particulars contained in his application or such other evidence or particulars as the Board considers necessary to determine whether to issue a licence.

Form of licence.

19. A licence to supply architectural services in Singapore shall be in the Form 7 set out in the First Schedule.

Validity of licence.

20. Each licence shall be valid for a period of 12 months from the date of its issue.

Appeals.

21. An appeal against any decision of the Board to refuse to issue a licence or to impose any condition on a licence under section 20 (4) or 21 (4) of the Act, respectively, shall —

(a) be made not more than 30 days after the decision of the Board has been notified to the appellant;

(b) be addressed to the Permanent Secretary, Ministry of National Development;

(c) set out the grounds of appeal; and

(d) be accompanied by a copy of the following documents:

(i) the decision of the Board and the reasons therefor;

(ii) the application for the licence and all documents accompanying that application; and

(iii) any other correspondence between the Board and the appellant in relation to the refusal to issue the licence or the conditions of the licence, as the case may be.

PART IV
